DUCT's Dundee United Youth Academy primarily aims to widen opportunities for football participation, training and coaching, at all levels, in Dundee and its surrounding areas. The programme also provides for educational initiatives and additionally seeks to introduce young people, male and female, to football as players, coaches and spectators. The club will continue to develop the provision of football opportunities for girls' and women's football and aims to provide a pathway from grass roots girls' football via support for Dundee United Women's team which operates within the DUCT structure.

The club, together with DUCT, will support and work with outside agencies, especially disadvantaged groups, and recognises that it has a role to play in promoting local social inclusion policies. The club intends to undertake football participation and coaching schemes for people with learning difficulties and the disabled.

School visits are an important part of the club's community programme and these are designed to promote and encourage not only football activity but also health promotion and social awareness.
